ABOUT US

THE HOSTING ORGANISATION:

The youth department of the City Hall of Albacete is a department that develops politics of local youngsters.

Objetives:

- To make easier the participation of youngsters in the development of the city.
- To promote experimentation during the Young age as a non-formal learning process.
- To offer a good information system to young people as a support to their plans towards their adult age
To prevent risks associated to young behavior
To improve the quality of the programs and the improvement of the services offered to youngsters.

In order to get all this, the youth department develops actions that are organized in the following way:

- PARTICIPATION AREA: This area has the goal to support the civic involvement of young people providing resources, advices and training to create opportunities to participate. In this context they develop the following projects:
  1. OPJA - office of information and support for group initiatives developed by young people (associations or informal group).
  2. YOUTH CENTRES NETWORK: self-management space opened to initiatives of young people, spare time activities offered to inform and to train: this area count on a total of 7 youth centers decentralized in the territory.
  3. BANK OF TOOLS FOR YOUNGSTERS - service of loan of documents and tools for youngsters that wants to develop project of cultural young initiative or sport activities opened to the city.
  4. YOUNG VOLUNTEERING - Support and diffusion of young volunteering in the city. This section gives information and support to volunteering organizations and to young people that want to work in the volunteering area. It also develops project of municipal volunteering: La gramola that is an intergenerational volunteering program; Aprendiendo that is a program that gives scholar support to children and youngsters Ocioteca that is a program with children to organize activities for the spare time and trips; Torre de Babel linguistic exchange program; cultural volunteering, sports volunteering…

- SPARE TIME AND CULTURE AREA: Through the participation to spare time activities this area wants to develop experiences and learning opportunities of young people. The association promote projects that want to share equality, respect, intercultural values with the goal to prevent risks that are associated to some models of young free time, all this with the background of non formal education.

- HEALTH AREA: the main goal is to prevent risks in relation with young behavior. It develops two projects: Alcazul, drugs’ prevention, and Asexorate, a program of information and training about sexual affection.
- MOBILITY AREA: workshops about trips and travels; hello Europe (linguistic exchange program), Europe direct office
- CENTRE OF INFORMATION TO YOUNG PEOPLE: Information about projects, events, course, scholarships, etc. that can be interesting for youngsters
